MEETING IN MANCHESTER

Funds Raised for Strikers at Big Mass-Meeting.

RESOLUTION WAS PASSED

Asked Company Not to Run Non-Union Cars in Manchester—Address by President Griggs—A Marriage Yesterday—Personal.

Manchester Bureau Times-Dispatch. No. 102 Hull Street.

Leader Hall was packed to the doors last night with citizens of Manchester assembled to give expression to their sentiments regarding the strike now in progress on the lines of the Passenger and Power Company.

It is estimated that at least 800 people were in attendance, and all the sentiments expressed were favorable to the striking employees. The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That the citizens of Manchester request the Passenger and Power Company not to run cars on the streets of Manchester until the strike is settled, and the union men now striking return to their places."

MORNING MARRIAGE. Other resolutions urging the company to agree to arbitration were adopted, and Rev. H. W. Criddle and A. C. Berryman appointed a committee to present them this morning.

The meeting last night was opened with prayer by Rev. H. W. Criddle. Mr. George B. Ely was made chairman and Mr. B. M. Robertson secretary.

After a few introductory remarks by Mr. Ely, President Griggs, of the Street Railway Union, addressed the meeting, setting forth the reasons of the men for striking and denying that they had broken any contract by so doing.

Mr. Ely, who spoke at length, telling of the condition of affairs, and who was accorded much applause. Mr. D. L. Toney spoke next, and offered the resolution above read.

Mr. C. C. Broadus was called on for a speech. He arose and said:

"Come around to my place and get $25."

Other speakers were Messrs. W. C. Shepherd, Robert Patman, B. M. Robertson, City Sergeant Saunders, A. C. Berryman and R. W. Criddle.

Mr. Robertson gave $10, Messrs. Moore and Burke $10, and Lily Council, No. 3, Daughters of Liberty, $5.

Mrs. Rosa Lee Wilkinson and Alexander N. Roberts were married at the home of the bride's parents, No. 217 West Sixth Street, at 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning.

The wedding march was played by Mrs. Bettie Harrison, and the Rev. R. M. Chandler performed the ceremony.

Miss Eva Robertson was maid of honor, and Willie G. Freeman acted as best man. The ushers were Messrs. George B. Ely and Philip T. Stone.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for an extended trip North. They will live in Manchester. The bride is the daughter of J. E. Wilkinson, and the groom is a brewer on the machine shops of the Southern Railway.
